

CLS Training Class

The Certified Lubrication Specialist (CLS) class is a four day class (Mon.-Thurs.) with the Certification exam on Friday morning. The candidates have three hours to complete the 150 question multiple choice exam. To be certified, the candidate must score a 70% or better on the exam.

The following topics are covered:

Lubrication Fundamentals

Bearings

Gears

Pneumatics

Transportation Lubrication

Fluid Power

Fluid Conditioning

Fluid Analysis

Metalworking

Lubricant Manufacturing

Seals

Solvents and Cleaners

Lubricant Programs: Monitoring & Reducing Consumption of Lubricants

Storage, Handling & Application of Lubricants

Problem Solving

